The Pastor's Corner

Last Monday I celebrated my ninety-first birthday. I find it hard to believe that I am so old. But I am also grateful to God for my health at this age. I am also grateful that I can continue to do the work I love at this age.

Last Sunday I celebrated two children's liturgies explaining the gospel message with the help of two puppets – Brownie and Dottie. After Mass I had the privilege of baptizing Ronan and welcoming this baby into the church. Later I joined Father Romain in celebrating the sacrament of Penance with our young Confirmation candidates. And I ended the day by chairing our Parish Pastoral Council and making plans for our collaboration with Holy Family Parish in Concord in June 2019. On Monday morning I continued to instruct a young woman who desires to join our church. It was a happy and satisfying week to continue the work of ministry for which I was ordained.

Fr. Tom Donohoe
